

ETHICS AND MALPRACTICE STATEMENT

- The publication of the Conference Proceedings follow strict ethical standards for research and academic publishing.
- All submitted manuscripts must be original and based on genuine research work.
- Authors are solely responsible for the content, data accuracy, references, and conclusions presented in their manuscripts.
- Any violations found in the manuscript, including plagiarism, AI content, copied content, data manipulation, or false authorship are the full responsibility of the authors.
- Proper citation and acknowledgement of all sources is mandatory.
- Simultaneous submission of the same paper to multiple journals/conferences is not allowed.
- All authors must approve the final version of the paper before submission.
- A signed undertaking by the author/s for ethical compliance is required.
- If any malpractice is discovered before or after publication, the manuscript/research paper may be rejected or withdrawn from the proceedings.
- The Editorial Committee reserves the right to take necessary action in case of ethical misconduct.
